INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE TRAINEES REPORTING FOR EIGHTEEN MONTHS
FOREST RANGE OFFICERS COURSE 2026-27 AT KFA DHARWAD.

ANNEXURE-A

1. INTRODUCTION:

Karnataka Forest Academy (KFA) is the premier training institution of the Karnataka Forest Department for capacity building and professional training of forestry personnel. The academy is located at Gungargatti near Dharwad and serves as the headquarters of the Training Wing of the Karnataka Forest Department.

The institution was originally established as the Karnataka State Forest Training Institute under the World Bank aided forestry project in 1992, and the infrastructure was completed in 1996. Later, during 2015-16, it was upgraded and renamed as Karnataka State Forest Academy (KSFA) to strengthen induction and in-service forestry training in Karnataka.

The academy provides induction and refresher training to various cadres of the forest department. There are six Forest Training Centres attached to KFA, which provide training to all the cadres of Forest Department.

The key areas of training include:

- * Forest management
- * Wildlife conservation
- * Biodiversity protection
- * Natural resource management
- * Forest law enforcement
- * Survey and GIS applications
- * Soft skills and public communication
- * Human-wildlife conflict management
- * Climate change and ecosystem conservation.

The academy campus spreads over about 42 hectares and includes:

- * Modern classrooms with teaching aids
- * Computer laboratories
- * Hostels and dormitories
- * Gymnasium and sports facilities
- * Swimming pool
- * Multi-utility buildings
- * Demonstration and field training areas.

Karnatak University Dharwad and the academy have collaborated to offer certificate, diploma and postgraduate diploma programmes in Natural Resource Management for forest trainees.

The academy plays an important role in strengthening professional forestry education, improving frontline field skills, and promoting sustainable forest and wildlife management in Karnataka. It also contributes significantly to conservation awareness, eco-restoration, and scientific forest administration in the state.

2. LOCATION:-

Karnataka Forest Academy, Dharwad is situated at Gungaragatti which is about 15 kilometers from Dharwad. Normal fare of Auto Rikshaw from Dharwad railway station to the Academy is about Rs. 200 to 250. The nearest airport is Hubballi Airport which is about 30 km from the Academy.

3. CONTACT:-

For any query of support the candidates may contact Sri Pradeep Pawar, Assistant Conservator of Forests & Assistant Course Director (Contact No. 9164476915) KFA, Dharwad and Smt. Jayshree, DyRFO (Contact No. 8861243970) KFA, Dharwad.

4. ARRIVAL:

Trainees are directed to reach academy a day in advance so that they may be able to report at 9.00 AM on 15-06-2026. The course will commence as soon as the trainees are enrolled and no delay in the admission will be allowed.

5. ACCOMODATION:

All the trainees will be accommodated in the academy hostel and they will be provided with a separate mess.
